

CenterSquare Investment Management Hires Deborah Considine as Director in Capital Markets Group

Industry Veteran to Assume Capital Raising Responsibility in Western U.S

Plymouth Meeting, PA – August 19, 2020 – CenterSquare Investment Management (CenterSquare), a leading global real assets manager, today announced the hiring of Deborah Considine as a Director in the firm’s Capital Markets group. In this role, Deborah will lead business development and fundraising efforts for CenterSquare’s public and private real estate investment strategies across the Western United States as well as other global regions. An industry veteran, she brings with her more than two decades of institutional relationships and real asset product experience.

Todd Briddell, CEO and CIO of CenterSquare, expressed his enthusiasm for Deborah’s energy and expertise:

“As an organization that is on a meaningful trajectory of strategic growth, CenterSquare is thrilled to welcome Deborah Considine to our team,” said Briddell. “Her impressive track record of capital raising and strong knowledge of our industry will allow her to hit the ground running and contribute to our efforts on day one. We look forward to the great work we will do together.”

Deborah most recently served as a Managing Director for Nuveen Institutional Advisory Services where she was responsible for the US west region distribution of private real estate and real assets investment products to large market institutional investors across all segments. She previously held leadership, relationship management and business development positions at TIAA Global Asset Management and UBS Realty Investors. Deborah holds a Master of Science (MS) in Real Estate Development from Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and a Bachelor of Arts (BA) in the History of Art from Yale University.
